NOTES TO THE FORM OF PROXY

- As a member of the Company you are entitled to appoint a proxy to exercise all or any of your rights to attend, speak and vote at a general meeting of the Company. You can only appoint a proxy using the procedures set out in these notes
- 2 Appointment of a proxy does not preclude you from attending the AGM and voting in person. If you have appointed a proxy and attend the AGM in person, your proxy appointment will automatically be terminated.
- A proxy does not need to be a member of the Company but they must attend the AGM to represent you. To appoint as your proxy a person other than the Chairman of the AGM, insert their full name in the box. If you sign and return this proxy form with no name inserted in the box, the Chairman of the AGM will be deemed to be your proxy. Where you appoint as your proxy someone other than the Chairman, you are responsible for ensuring that they attend the AGM and are aware of your voting intentions. If you wish you proxy to make any comments on your behalf, you will need to appoint someone other than the Chairman and give them the relevant instructions directly.
- You may appoint more than one proxy provided each proxy is appointed to exercise rights attached to different shares. You may not appoint more than one proxy to exercise rights attached to any one share. To appoint more than one proxy, please give the name of each proxy in the box below indicating the shares over which you are appointing them your proxy. Λ
- To direct your proxy how to vote on the resolutions mark the appropriate box with an 'X'. If no voting indication is given, your proxy will vote or abstain from voting at his or her discretion. The Board requests that no Shareholders attend the meeting but that instead they appoint the Chairman of the Annual General Meeting as their proxy. This will ensure that your vote will be counted. Any Shareholders that do attend will be refused entry. Only those who are required to form the quorum will attend in person and those Shareholders will constitute the minimum quorum for the meeting to take place. Given the constantly evolving nature of the situation, should circumstances change before the time of the Annual General Meeting, we want to ensure that we are able to adapt arrangements and to welcome Shareholders to the Annual General Meeting, within safety constraints and in accordance with government guidelines. Should we consider that it has become possible to do so, the General Meeting will be open for allShareholders to attend.
